

AN ORIGINAL TAKE ON THE NEW ORLEANS BLUES STYLE

BUCUCRASU

PIONEERS OF JUNGLE BOOGIE AND BLUES DUBSTEP

Bucucrasu... it means “Plenty Funky” in New Orleans parlance. This seven piece acoustic outfit is winning new admirers wherever they play, with their patented brew of Dr John inspired boogie funk. Weaving dance floor inspired rhythms with mesmerising piano grooves, Bucucrasu offers a totally unique and captivating contribution to New Orleans blues, the style that lies at the root of modern funk. They aspire to bring this music to a new generation, and to build on the mindblowing soul and swing boogie innovations of immortal greats like Professor Longhair and James Booker.

The band is lead by the vocal talents of Kesty Morrison, with virtuosos Eric Arthur on piano and Jack Salt on beatbox. Add in vocal harmonies, cajun flavoured fiddle, amazing harmonica and double bass players, and the MC skills of Hobaps... it all adds up to a unique blend of elements that's guaranteed to get the groove on and raise the roof.

Kesty Morrison – vocals (Dub From Atlantis/CCQ/Cazal/Katey Brooks/Sir Beans OBE)

Eric Arthur – piano (Chris Mayfield's Methylated Spiritualists)

Jack Salt – beatbox (Ushti Baba/Cazal/The Inexplicables)

Esther Watkins – vocals & violin (Grasshopper/Troubadour Hook)

Henry Slim – blues harp (Slap Ya Mama Big Band/Ramblin Tyme)

Joe Allen – double bass (worked in a fish & chip shop)

Hobaps – emcee (Major Triadz/The Inexplicables)

Why not put the kettle on and check out their sounds....
